

Tulchan

11,000 square feet

Tulchan is one of Europe's leading financial communications consultancies, specialising in advising major corporations on their capital market communications and financial media relations.

Tulchan works for a wide range of leading companies both in the UK and internationally.

After a competitive pitch Pacific Interiors were appointed to design and fit-out Tulchan's new office at 85 Fleet Street.

Pacific successfully completed the project on time and within budget and helped Tulchan create an inspiring environment for both visiting clients and staff.
